

strategic opportunity stipends guidelines + application 2010

SOS, a project of the New York Foundation for the Arts, working in collaboration with arts councils and cultural organizations across New York State, is designed to help individual artists of all disciplines take advantage of specific unique opportunities that will significantly benefit their work or career development.

Artists working in all disciplines (including literature, media arts, visual arts, music, and theater) may request support ranging from $100 to $600 for specific, forthcoming opportunities. These do not include works-in-progress.

Who can apply?

- 1 You must be 18 years of age or older.
- 2 You must be a full-time resident for the past year from date of application deadline in one of the participating counties listed on this page of the application. All recipients must show proof of residency status before receiving award money.

Who cannot apply?

- 1 Any past SOS recipient who has outstanding final reports or retains unused award money.
- 2 A graduate or undergraduate student enrolled in any degree program at the time of application, including high school students.
- 3 A recipient of a New York Foundation for the Arts Fellowship award in the previous year. An current participant in NYFA's MARK program.
- 4 An employee, member of the Board of Trustees or Artists' Advisory Committee of NYFA, an immediate family member of a current SOS panelist, or a current employee or member of the Board of Trustees of any current SOS sponsoring organization.

Applications should be submitted to the appropriate regional sponsoring organization. Please see the list of sponsoring organizations on the last page of this application. A PDF of the SOS applications can be accessed online at nyfa.org/sos.

Frequently Asked Questions

How much money is awarded?

Amounts awarded for Strategic Opportunity Stipends range from $100 to $600.

What is the selection process?

Evaluation and selection of applications will be made by a panel of artists and arts administrators from each region with diverse disciplinary, geographic, and ethnic backgrounds. Family members of applicants may not serve as panelists for that review round. If you are interested in serving as a panelist and are not currently an applicant, please contact the sponsoring organization for your region (see back page).

What does the panel consider?

Because the intent of this award is to substantially advance an artist's work or career, applications should clearly describe the concrete impact the artist's career will gain from the proposed opportunity. An important element of the panel's work is to compare the resume directly to the opportunity being applied for. The panel determines if the opportunity will be a unique and advanced experience for this artist, based on the artist's career as the resume describes it. The merit of the opportunity and its feasibility will also be considered. Self-generated opportunities will not be considered, a third-party must invite the artist to participate in the proposed opportunity. A note on works-in-progress: SOS funding exists to help artists act on unique events in their careers. The uniqueness of a given opportunity in an artist's career is determined by review of his or her resume. Therefore, even exceptional opportunities may be viewed as ongoing work if they duplicate previous activities in an applicant's work or career. In addition, because photographing or recording new work is an ongoing part of an artist's career, documentation of work, unless associated with a unique opportunity, is considered ongoing work.

Are all qualified opportunities funded?

No. Unfortunately requests for SOS support are usually greater than available funds, therefore it is important for artists to submit the strongest possible application. Applicants are encouraged to contact sponsoring organizations to solicit feedback in advance of the deadline to ensure the strongest possible application.

How is a mentorship defined?

A mentorship is an opportunity to work with a professional artist in a one-on-one or small group setting. The applicant must specify what specific skill the mentor will impart and the mentor’s qualifications. The strongest applications will explain how the mentorship will directly benefit a separate forthcoming opportunity for the applicant, the mentorship experience itself does not constitute a significant opportunity.

Are artist residencies covered by SOS?

In some cases residencies may be funded if the residency is distinct from ongoing work. Successful applications will explain how the the residency and the residency experience will advance their artistic career in the context of their resume.

Are workshops covered by SOS?

Artists must be presenters of their own work during a workshop opportunity in order to be eligible for SOS funding. Workshops are distinct from classes in that the artist must be in the role of presenter rather than student or trainee.

What if I collaborate with someone?

Applications for collaborative proposals between two artists must be made in the name of one artist with the other artist listed on the application form. One application will be accepted per collaborative pair; however, resumes from both artists must be included. Artists applying collaboratively should document a history of working together. Applications for collaborations between more than two artists will not be accepted.

What are the deadlines for applying?

Applications will be accepted in 3 rounds, each with its own submission deadline and award dates.

The deadlines for completed applications are September 24, January 27 and May 25.

Applications must be in the appropriate regional office by 5:00 p.m. on the day of the deadline. No emailed or faxed applications will be accepted. An artist may apply only once in each round.

When am I notified?

Artists will be notified of results within one month of each deadline.

If I receive an award, what must I do?

Upon receiving notice of award the artist must show proof of residency in the region (lease, tax return, utility bills, etc.) from at least 12 months prior to the deadline of the round applied to. Funds cannot be released without this proof. A one-page final report and submission of receipts or record of expenses are due within 4 months of award notification. Money not used by the artist must be returned within 4 months of award notification. Artists who fail to do so will forfeit the chance to apply for any SOS funds in future rounds.

How to apply

Applications should be submitted to the appropriate regional sponsoring organizations at the addresses on the back of this page. Complete the application form. Submit copies of this form along with resume(s) and letter(s) of confirmation collated and stapled together into 7 sets.

*7 copies of the completed application

*7 copies of a brief, chronological resume (not to exceed 2 double-spaced pages). Please indicate your artistic discipline within your resume.

*7 copies, on organization letterhead, of a letter or other written confirmation of the specific opportunity for which you are applying. For study with a mentor, include mentor’s resume or background information.

(Application forms are pages 4 & 5 of this packet).
