Work Samples - Manuscript of your Literary Work

Work samples are a representation of your artistic work created within the last five years. This is the most important part of your application, as it will be the primary point of review.

Work Sample Inventory: Applicants can submit up to 20 pages from a manuscript that best represents their practice. Please also include a 1 page title page in your PDF in addition to the 20 page manuscript (21 pages in total). The title page should include the title of the piece and the date of completion, but not the name of the author. If your work sample includes a combination of excerpts from larger works, you are strongly advised to include substantial portions from each larger work, rather than small fragments.

Do not include publication and/or production information anywhere on your manuscript. Do not include your artistic résumé in your .pdf. Materials can be previously published or not. If published, scanned excerpts from books or periodicals, in published form, will be ineligible. Manuscripts must be in English, but can be translated into English by someone other than the artist.

Work Sample Descriptions: Before you upload the .pdf file to your application, you will need to name your file. Do not label your work sample with your name. Instead, label it with the title of your work.

After your work sample has been uploaded, you will be able to provide a description (metadata) including title, date the work was completed, and additional information. Do not include production or publication history.

File Format

Review Process - How Are Applications Reviewed?

Playwriting/Screenwriting applications are reviewed online over the course of 3 elimination rounds. All applications will be reviewed anonymously in the first round of review.

Council on the Arts

In Round 1, the panel will have access to all applicants' Work Samples (up to 20 pages of manuscript) and the Work Statement. Applications are assigned a number and reviewed anonymously. In these rounds panelists are directed to review and score applications independently.

In Round 2, panelists will have access to all supplemental written statements (i.e: Artist Statement, Excerpt Explanation, Cultural Statement, and/or Technical Statement). Similar to the first round, the panel will continue to review and score applications independently.

In the following round, the panel will meet online and collectively discuss the applications that have made it into this round before selecting the Fellowship Recipients.

Please note, panelists will not look at websites of any kind during the application review process. Submitting any work that has been awarded a NYSCA/NYFA Artist Fellowship in the past will automatically disqualify your application.

Once submitted, you will no longer be able to make changes to your application!

You will receive an automatic confirmation notification from Submittable once your application has been successfully submitted. If you do not see this confirmation, please contact fellowships@nyfa.org.
